Kincare

Support Services

What we offer:

- Temporary help with in-home or family-based cared care, so you can take a break
- Information on legal options
- As funds allow, consultation with an attorney
- One-time financial help with basic needs (e.g., utility bill)
- Connections to social service programs

What we charge:

There are no charges for our services. However, we do accept voluntary contributions of any amount.

Who qualifies:

We serve older relative caregivers who are at least 55 years of age and are primary caretakers of minors who are not children or family members under the age of 60 who have severe disabilities. Caregivers must live in one of the following counties: Collin, Denton, Ellis, Erath, Hood, Hunt, Johnson, Kaufman, Navarro, Palo Pinto, Parker, Rockwall, Somervell and Wise.

We give priority to older relatives who have low incomes; are caring for people with disabilities; and care for two or more dependent family members.

How we're funded:

We receive funds from Texas Health and Human Services, made available through the Older Americans Act of 1965.

How to contact us:

Give us a call at 1-800-272-3921 to see if you qualify for kincare support services, or to get more information.
