West U police made several arrests from Dec. 6-Dec. 10.

West U police arrested a 30-year-old Houston resident on Dec. 6 for displaying a fake inspection sticker.

Police pulled a vehicle over in the 6300 block of Academy with expired registration.

During the traffic stop, the driver was found to be displaying a fake inspection sticker.

Teofilo Ortiz was arrested for a fictitious inspection sticker and was transferred to Harris County jail.

On Dec. 6, a 20-year-old Louisiana resident was written a citation for a fake driver's license.

Police pulled the driver over in the 6600 block of Buffalo Speedway for speeding.

During the traffic stop, the officer asked the driver for his driver's license and noticed a fake license in his wallet.

The 20-year-old driver admitted he used the license to go out with friends who were older than him, police said.

He was cited for the offense of possession of fictitious driver's license.

On Dec. 8, Maria Velazquez, a 36-year-old Houston resident, was arrested for driving without a driver's license.

Police pulled Velazquez over in the 5800 block of Community for speeding.

During the traffic stop, she was found to be driving without a driver's license. Velazquez also had four previous convictions for no driver's license, police said.

She was arrested for the offense.

On Dec. 10, Mariah Atkins, a 26-year-old Houston resident, was arrested for driving while license suspended.

Police pulled Atkins over in the 6800 block of Buffalo Speedway for speeding.

During the traffic stop, she was found to be driving while license invalid due to a previous driving while license invalid charge.

She was arrested and transported to Harris County jail.
