

North Central Texas Council of Governments

TO: Local Government Officials

DATE: March 5, 2025

FROM: Mike Eastland
Executive Director

SUBJECT: Nominations for the NCTCOG Regional Cooperation Award

The North Central Texas Council of Governments established the Regional Cooperation Award to recognize and honor extraordinary cooperative programs and projects among local governments. By working together, governments can produce impressive results and strengthen the region. This award is intended to recognize local governments that have demonstrated a commitment to the concept of "regionalism" through cooperative projects that cross municipal and/or county boundaries, and provide for more efficient use of resources, while still yielding a high quality of service to the citizens. North Central Texas Council of Governments
Regional Cooperation Award

GUIDELINES

In 1996, the North Central Texas Council of Governments established the Regional Cooperation Award to be presented each year at NCTCOG's Annual General Assembly Meeting. The award recognizes local governments that have demonstrated a commitment to the concept of "regionalism" through their cooperative programs and projects.

Who is Eligible?

Any local governments in the 16-county North Central Texas region (Collin, Dallas, Denton, Ellis, Erath, Hood, Hunt, Johnson, Kaufman, Navarro, Palo Pinto, Parker, Rockwall, Somervell, Tarrant, Wise counties).

Who Can Nominate?

Local government staff members, local elected officials, chamber of commerce officials, or interested citizens may nominate a local government to receive this award.

How Do I Nominate?

- Submit the nomination form. Identify the nominator(s), the jurisdictions involved, the program/project being recognized, and summarize how the project meets the award criteria listed below.
- To be qualified, nominations must be submitted on the nomination form or a facsimile thereof.

Selection Criteria

Applicants will be judged on ...

- Promotion of coordination and cooperation between or among different cities or counties; or between a city and a county, on programs/projects which address common needs;
- Recognition that jurisdictional boundaries are not barriers to such programs and projects; and,
- Demonstration that joint programs and projects can provide better use of resources and equally high or higher quality service to their citizens.

NOMINATION DEADLINE

THE DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS IS MAY 16, 2025

PLEASE NOMINATE ONLINE AT www.nctcog.org/nominations
