

Construction General Permit Updates

This document lists the most significant changes to the 2023 Construction General Permit TXR150000 that need to be reviewed.

Erosion & Sediment Control

- Dewatering (p. 44)
 - Must observe and evaluate controls at least once per day

Permit Applicability & Coverage

- Concrete Truck Washout (p. 13)
- Ongoing Construction (p. 17)
 - Large Construction Activities
 - Small Construction Activities
- Automatic Authorization for Small Construction Activities (p. 19)
- Authorization for Large Construction Activities (p. 20-21)

Stormwater Pollution Prevention Plans (SWP3)

- Revisions and Updates to SWP3s (p. 32)
 - 2023 CGP Now Allows for use of electronic SWP3s
- Content of SWP3s (p. 33)
 - General Requirements (p. 33)
 - Erosion Control and Stabilization Process (p. 34)
 - Inspection of Dewatering Controls (p. 38)
 - Inspection of All Controls (p. 39, 41)

Flow Chart & Definitions

- Dewatering (p.6)
- Final Stabilization (p. 8)

Concrete Batch Plants Runoff

- Benchmark Sampling Requirements (p. 46, 47)
- Best Management Practices (BMPs) and SWP3 Requirements (p. 49)

The 2023 Construction General Permit can be found here:

<https://www.tceq.texas.gov/downloads/permitting/stormwater/general/construction/2023-cgp-txr150000.pdf>